

Contra Costa County Honor Band

September 2009

Enclosed is your Contra Costa County Honor Band - Season 20 application. The audition process continues to be straight forward, thus providing audition experience in a relatively non-threatening atmosphere while establishing a minimum competency level for the band. Auditions will be held on December 5, 2009, at Las Lomas H.S. in Walnut Creek. We would like the band to represent students from ALL of the Contra Costa County high school bands. Auditions will include state honor band audition scales, a short prepared piece/excerpt of an appropriate level, and sight-reading. It is recommended that students bring a copy of their prepared piece for the adjudicator. No Walk on Auditions. The registration fees are due with your school/student application.
